MRS. HARRISON RESPONDS TO

PRICE ONE CENT.

POVERTY'S GRASP

Nell Nelson Carries Relief to the Sick and Weak in the Tenements.

Sad Scenes from the Shadows of Metrepolitan Life.

Children Working to Support Their Bedridden Parants.

Money and Nourishment Distributed Among the Very Needy.

Although of society, the poor sick babies of New York are not in society, which may in a measure account for the fact that all were at home Thursday afternoon when the visiting committee of the Baby

We were five-a cashier, artist and two supply agents. Our luggage included $100, a stock of sweet wine, fruit jellies, mutton for broth, condensed milk and prepared infants' food. THE EVENING WORLD'S COTES Of Free Physicians supplied the calling list, every name entered belonging to a sick child or a family in utter destitution.

For reasons that seem best and kind definite addresses are withheld. All are on record and may to had by sending a

Have you a little daughter? Yes, thirteen or so; soft-eyed, gentle, sweet and shy; the pride of your mother's heart, the promise of your old age. Then indeed you are blessed.

But think of this fragile little creature. getting up at 6 o'clock in the morning. esting a breakfast of bread and tea and going out to work for your support: think of her with broken shoes, soleless stockings and a ragged unsightly dress, welking two miles to a box factory; working all day long with a piece of dry bread and a pauny banana for a lunch; and after her drudgery returning to the dark, foulsmelling, ill-ventilated kitchen, near the roof of a crumbling old tenement; think of her eating bread and tea for her even ing meal without either relish or refreshment; think of a pillow on the floor be tween the cooking stove and the winder for her night's rest, more exhausted that restful, to be followed by the awakening that repeats the cares and privations of the previous day.

Doean't it give you a pang to even

POVERTY LANE DOORWAY. whose life is but faintly outlined in this tained employment by falsehood, for while just in her teens she has the appearance of a child of ten, though protesting that she is fourteen.

When we called the wee laborer was a work. The mother, a patient of Dr. Maton, sat at the open window, burning with heat and contorted with pain. was suffering from rhoumatism. Her feet were bound with old cloth he dress was worn and untidy, and all the furniture in the two rooms would not bring $1 if put upon the block of the suc-

Most of the chairs were designed by a crude artist, a mackerel keg, a tub and a wooden pail offering support to the visttor that was far from secure. HARNS 81 A WEEK.

She said her sole support came from the brave little woman of thirteen, was received but $1 a week. The rent was unpaid and there was neither food nor fuel in the house.

Were the whole block offered me for one penny I could not buy it." Such was the sententious estimate of and took them out because I thought I her condition.

Dear, dear, it was pitiable to see her and to work.

will be an event to her mumory.

by actual count, stepped over and about with a square of ice-cream frozen into a fourteen runabouts and creep-alongs, little brick, Not a child wore shoes, stockings or under garments; not one had a clean face, red cheeks or a healthy appearance.

n earth when the lilacs were in bloom.

omen, and neither strong nor healthy.

The only living specimen was " Patsy, dressed in a single skirt, who with a tack hammer and lozenze box was trying to

The child is beautiful, full-chested, broad-shouldered and finely proportioned.

Too much attention arouses the suspicion of an elder sister, who reports to her mother. In a few minutes a then woman, barefooted and bare-shouldered, comes

We follow the woman and son to a neat hurrying down and leads Patsy upstairs.

ne their babies.

black stones.

cats in the family.

between her hands, "Oh, it tastes like Winter," she says, in fancy. It is not possible to withstand the mute " how good it must be," or the appealing "how I wish I had a piece." The cashier does not try. Forty grimy hands cover forty dimes, and forty tiny girls fly off in cestasies.

POOR LITTLE TORY.

In Washington street a boy of four is little room. A horseshoe hangs over the found, lying in a doorway. He is too door, but the luck it has brought to the small to talk and too sick to ait up. Chilinmates is not evident. Everything is as dren tell us to keep away, that he has clean and tidy as care and scouring can whooping cough. The mother up in the make it. The bedding is white, a remark- fourth story has four other children, and, able thing for a tenement-house. There like Toby, all are afflicted with the dreadare seven young children and two pussy ful cough. They need milk and medicine which are purchased at once.

The mother, a widow, supports the The next object of misery is small Magfamily by scrubbing out office. She goes gie, who, seated on the freight platform of to work at 4 in the morning, scrubs a Washington street warehouse, has her ported by a pair of cerpenter's "horses."

MISSELY INDICED.

inhabit.

LITTLE JOHANNA'S HOME.

floors and cleans furniture till 8: at night | foot in her lap, a splinter in her sole the sweeping is done, and it is 8 before her little tongue in the air. she gets home. Her earnings average $3 The artist improvises a foot-bath, his week. The children are pretty, but handkerchief, aided by the lolling tongue, they were sick. Their play-house is on he plays surgeon, the treacherous black the canopy. Here the little ones eat maiden skips off without comment or re- low as soft music. their bread and milk; here they play mark, house with bits of crockery, pebbles, and Five children under seven years of age buildings. When the night is very hot a bed is made in the window play-house, and here the ailing child is laid to sleep.

The cashier's heart goes out to the brave mother, and by way of encouragement enough money is given the children to pay for shoes and a dress all round.

NOTHING TO EAT FOR THREE DAYS. The same roof shelters an unfortunate young woman who has two tables, one an infant of six months. Her room was so dark that we could not distinguish her features.

Mother and children were taken out in the yard and this is the story that her lips told and her face confirmed:

"My husband has deserted mehave nothing in the world to live on: I wesned the child, but naving no food tor it, had to nurse it again. For three days I have lived on water. I had the children in St. Joseph's Home, Peckskill.

PLAY-HOUSE ON A FIRE-RECAPE.

could support them, but I am too weak to the Corn Exchange every morning at the little boxwaker. The small proviagain there is a small army of children, slon men banled out a pot of jelly and a all girls, too, waiting for us with oursons, dish of chops, and I am certain that the supplicating syes. the suite of a girl.

The advance up Washington street retest spread before the child that evening with those hig, has upon a cutter our will be an event to be managed above.

When is left for the invalid, milk for the halvance up Washington street retest spread before the child that evening with those hig, has upon a cutter our will be an event to be managed above.

When is left for the invalid, milk for the shall among to pay back rent.
The advance up Washington street retest spread before the child that evening system as of the same waiting to pay back rent.

The advance up Washington street retest spread before the child that evening system as of the same waiting to pay back rent.

The advance up Washington street retest spread before the child that evening system. In West effect we entered a narrow, that the lakes bey he seed in a series an hallway leading to a rear tenement, and, cool the parched lips. He comes back MRS. HARRISON SPEAKS TO THE SIXTH TOAST

> She smiles gratefully when it is placed "THE BUSINESS WOMAN."

> > Across the ocean on a Cattle Steamer A World Writer Makes the Voyage to Describe the Scenes on Board.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, AUGUST 2, 1890.

IT WILL BE FOLLOWED BY ANOTHER CHAPTER NEXT WEEK

IN THE SUNDAY WORLD

has nothing but want and disease. The HIS PRIDE LET HIM STARVE. KEMMLER FAILS. said of ber attire. The array of the four children is less father abandoned his family, and nothing has been seen or heard of him since. Every article of furniture has been sold but the stove and bed. The baby, ten months old, cannot live, and the two elder boys have but a slight hold on life. There is no food, no clothing, no money -nothing for these little ones but starvation. For the last ninety days they have depended on the goodness of the neighbors for enough to eat. The order from the treasurer is to give her everything. and the basket boys obey. The cash donation is not apopletic, and it cannot

When it is used, heaven only knows the poor, emaciated woman.

A dying child in Trinity place, two in Pike street, one in an Oak street garret, three in Market street and two in one room in Cherry street. Diarrhosa is the universal disease in these sections, but the Cherry street babes are wasting away for lack of proper nourishment, We mot BANDAGED LIKE A MUMMY. the parents. They did not seem to care and you could not find words to upbraid their indifference. Sympathy, care, even parental love dies when the bodily functions are denied sustenance. pictures are horrible.

The sum of $25 is divided, which means medicine, milk, bread, tea-temporary relief, and then?

We take Market street, and the first recipient of our, of your bounty, dear, pale from lack of fresh air; all last month serving every purpose. With his penknife generous readers, is a cripple girl with a skin like polished bronze, fathomless the fire-escape, a piece of ticking forming stick is hauled out and the confiding little brown eyes and a voice as sweet and

FIVE WHO LIVE ON $2 A WEEK.

She is twelve, but the strength of your such cards and calendars as the mother are found alone in a tenement-house near little finger would disarm her. Eleven years ago her mother died. The father is a consumptive, who cannot possibly outlive the year. Mary lives with her aunt, whose entire time is taffed by a sick kusband, also a consumptive. Their home is in a half story, the roof window supplying hing ight and air. The child needs everything; so do the father and uncle. Some assistance was given each.

Next door we found an old woman, clad as only poverty can be. She had three grandchildren, the youngest seven months. The mother, aged twenty-two, gets $2 a week stempting tobacco leaves. On this the five people keep life in their bodies. They have one room, bare of bodies. They have one room, bare of comforts. They subsist on bread and tea made with cold water.

Can you believe that such misery exists, or that a man who promised to love the Rector and Washington streets. One is woman he wedded and who bore his chilasleep on a pile of rag mattreases, sup-

But there remains $1 of the $100. On the way downstairs a baby is found in the Overhead, in a hammock, the baby hangs, hall scarlet with rash and mouning from It is a sweet child, snowy white and as bandaged as a mummy. Twin the heat. We bargain with the half dead boys of three-and-a-half lie on the kitchen and alive mother to take the child down the bay and lay it at the feet of Liberty. floor and watch the eldest brother, who is trying to coar a pet receter to jump over She gives the promise, and we go home empty-handed and heart-sick, wondering that so many ills are as they are. These boys are always hungry. How they live none of the neighbors know. Both parents are away, the father running Opie Read's Pocket Religion. errands for a market man and the poor He tells a good story about a Italian mother scouring the gutters along West and Washington stredts for rembandy belief in THE SUNDAY WOBLD. nants of food, This sustains the family and the husband's sarnings appears the Baseball To-Day. landlord for the wretched quarters they Regularly scheduled games: It is needless to say that the small brown babies received assistance.

Heaven help the tiny boy we found in the Washington street. He is one and one-half years of age. He has lung trouble; his father is dying of consumptionally in the constant of the co trouble; his father is dying of consumption and his mother of despair. She goes daylight to do office cleaning. leaving the leading Leagues: heartrending to think of a fragile girl of thirteen working her young life away to support this lonely, helpless widow.

The cashier opened the bank, paid the rest, provided for a week's supply of food, and a pair of shoos and stockings for When we pass through the hallway less.

daylight to do office cleaning, leaving the by in charge of the dying man. It would be hard to tell which is the weaker. To support this lonely, helpless widow.

The cashier opened the bank, paid the rest, provided for a week's supply of food, and a pair of shoos and stockings for When we pass through the hallway less.

daylight to do office cleaning, leaving the by in charge of the dying man. It would be hard to tell which is the weaker. To day the poor baby is worse than usual; a fresh cold has cettled on his chast and one of the dying man. It would be hard to tell which is the weaker. To day the poor baby is worse than usual; a fresh cold has cettled on his chast and one of the dying man. It would be hard to tell which is the weaker. To day the poor baby is worse than usual; a fresh cold has cettled on his chast and one of the dying man. It would be hard to tell which is the weaker. To day the poor baby is worse than usual; a fresh cold has cettled on his chast and one of the dying man. It would be hard to tell which is the weaker. To day the poor baby is worse than usual; a fresh cold has cettled on his chast and one of the dying man. It would be hard to tell which is the weaker. To day the poor baby is worse than usual; a fresh cold has cettled on his chast and one of the dying man. It would be hard to tell which is the weaker. To day the poor baby is worse than usual; a fresh cold has cettled on his chast and one of the dying man. It would be hard to tell which is the weaker. To day the poor baby is worse than usual; a fresh cold has cettled on his chast and one of the dying man. It would be hard to tell which is the weaker. To day the poor baby is worse than usual; a fresh cold has cettled on his chast and one of the dying man.

Thomas Stevens Spends a Day and Night at His Farm and Studies Him at Close range.

TOESTOI, AD EROTIC MADMAD.

NELL NELSON ON BUSINESS GIRLS.

BILL NYE POSES AS THE LORD CHESTER FIELD OF STATEN ISLAND.

Babies of the World-Home Decorations-A Breezy and Delightful Issue.

THE SUNDAY WORLD.

serviceable. Last Spring the inhuman Sad Fate of Spencer Pritchard,

Actor and Author.

He Hadn't Had a Good Square Meal in Four Months.

There are a great many pathetic circumstances surrounding the death of Spencer

One of his friends, in fact the only friend he really had in this vast metropolis, the one who gave him sholter and ministered to what will become of the sick babies and his wants during his last hours, remarked seek between Charles F. Durston, Warden good quality, the racing was unusually into an Evening World reporter this morn- of Authurn Prison, and his men on the one > caused his death."

> This friend was William J. Morrissey, of This friend was William J. Morrissey, of Every member of the Warden's staff of on that event being heavier than on the 1706 Third avenue, at whose house officers has been cautioned to silence by Mr. Iroquois Stakes, to which Protection was Pritchard passed away. "I met Spencer in a Third avenue saloon week ago last Wednesday," said Mr. Morissey. He was very sick, and I brought helplessness touched the woman's heart. him to my home. He was suffering fearfully and I notified the Actors' Fund. 'They sent Dr. Baran around and he prescribed for him, but the poor fellow grew the story. rapidly worse and died yesterday morning. Pastor 'Poor Pritchard told me he hadn't actually eaten a good square meal in four months.

'He was too proud to ask for assistance, and if you wanted to do him a favor and he thought it was prompted by charity, he'd rathus with scorn.

"He has played in awful tough luck for the past two year. He had started out to fulfil a number of different engagements with small companios, but they would invariably go to pieces on the road and he would scorn be back learing again in New Two cinan eince the commencement of the cruise.

---

At 11.15 the Electra was just coming out, and five racers were out—the Gessoon. Minerva, Moccasin, Mariquita and Liris.

11.40—The first gun was fired at 11.20, the second gun at 11.30.

Minerva crossed the line first, followed closely by two black and one white yacht.

The Gessoon was last to cross the line, five minutes after the gun was fired.

1.70 r, m—Racers now well separated. Minerva holding h-r lead.

The finish will be probably about 3 o'clock.

Little Doubt that the Marderer at Auburn Has Weakened.

His Terror While the Electric Apparatus Was Tested.

He is Demented.

IFFECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD AUBURN, Aug. 2. - The game of hide-and-"Poor Spencer! Starvation and pride porters on the other, is now fully under side, and forty determined newspaper re-

Durston, and even the fair and cheerful Mrs. Durston is discreetly silent about the miserable brute, William Kemmler, whose But all of those connected with the prison deny the story that Kemmler has weakened -deny it so vigorously as to almost confirm Pastor Houghton and Old Daniel Mc Saughton, of the death-watch, declare that Kemmler is only silent, not moody, and only contemplating his coming translation to a better world,

"Daniel, I'm going home. I guess there will be no stopping me this time, will So the condemned man spoke to his old keeper, as the latter was about to leave at midnight last night. Two weeks ago Kemmler had a sick spell, and it was then that he "weakened.

Just before this Kemmler had a funny streak and added to his autograph, on the innumerable cards that he wrote, some rude drawings.

"The subject that pleased him most was a deseatment or she price over of a night's lodging.

"He told me when I met him, ten days ago, that he had been sleeping in chairs for severs! nights.

"The doctor said Spencer was suffering from kidneg and liver troubles, and he was afflicted wiffl dropsy, too. It wasn't a case of drink causing his death.

"In all the years that I knew him I never saw Pritchard drunk. He used to take a glass now and then, but that was all.

Pritchard comes of the old theatrics! family of teat name.

He was born in Pritadelbhia in 1847 and was a student at the University of Pennsylvania. He studied medicine but never took his dearce as M. D.

He sngagged in mercantile business in Boston years ago and married in that city a sister of Lawrence Barrett, the eminent." It was the resumption of a torture that to Ects County.

Warden Durston says he will extend no in-

This Bays Local Showers.

Washington, Aug.

W. Weather indi
sations;

For Ensier New

Fork: Lecul showers

Fork: Lecul showers

Fork: Lecul showers

Fork: Lecul showers

Fork on southers a price of the Pin does to his these linearies to change on the local particular and the wires in New York, will perform the autopay here. This and summan and the wires in New York, will perform the autopay here. This and summan is a hobby of electrical cases, and can give mare to science from his experience,

completed and experienced a change of heart, loss not visit the condemned to orden as formery.

Y. Jenkins, of hew York, who has performed the autopay on every one of the cases of theath on the wires in New York, will perform the autopay here. This and summan and a hobby of electrical cases, and can

give mare to science from his experience,

completed and experienced a change of heart,

loss not visit the condemned so orden as formers, with the condemned and change of the wires in New York, will perform the autopay here. This and summan and a hobby of electrical cases, and can

give mare to science from his experience, completed and experience a change of the wires in New York, will perform the autopay on the body

for a remark the wires in New

York will perform the autopay on the body

for a remark the wires in New

York will perform the autopay on the body

for a remark the wires in New

York will perform the autopay on the body

for a remark the wires in New

York will perform the autopay on the body

for a remark the wires in the A report reached New York this afternoon, founded on runners concerning Lemmiler's to southerly; stationary tempters, it is seen to day, as indicated by the continued strain and worrings to, it is a seen suggested that Warden Direction, who was in Albany seterday and is and to be in New Hors to-day, has spoken to ison the low till of the advisability of an inquiry as to Kenmiler's state of mind.

In view of these runners and reagestions, the possible postponement of the electronic dion, and even a timal scarpe of the minderer from the extreme penalty is fulled at. Who this other elovem witnesses will be Warden Durston refuses to say.

THE OSTRICH AS A MODEL HUSBAND.

(According to Opie Read.)

ALL NIGHT IN UPPER AIR.

GOME-TO-TAW'S NEW REGORD

Fastest Mile and a Quarter Run on the Saratoga Track.

Sir John Wins the Iroquois Stakes, with Masterlode Second.

PEPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD ! SARATOGA RACE TRACE, Aug. 2.-The nanal Saturday excursion from Albany and Troy, combined with a good representation from the hotels, made a large attendance at the races to-day.

The weather was clear and very warm. but as the track was in good order, and as the programme brought together horses of teresting to both the spectators and the bookies. The chief interest of the people.

PIRST BACK. For two-year-olds; six furlongs.

was centred in the second race, the betting

-Fairview got the best of the

For all ages; mile and a quarter

THIRD RACE The Iroquois Stakes, for three-year-olds: White Suches

The Race—Santiago led at the start with Protection and Uncle itob following. At the stand Masterlode vent to the front and lapped by Uncle Bob son! Santiago he showed the way to the head of the stretch, when Sir John feined issue and after a whipping finish he beat Masterlode home by a neck with Santiago third, two lengths of Time—1, 51.

by a neck with Earnings state, of Time-1, 51.

1 'ools.—Sir John, $25; Santiago and Uncle Bob, $14 each; Masteriode, $9; fleid, $8.

Muttels paid $4, 80,

Fourth Race—Three-quarters of a mile.—Drizzle first, Irene second, Bine Rock third. Time-1, 1619.

RACING YACHTS AT NEWPORT.

To-Day's Contest is for Rear Commodore Iselin's Cup.

IMPROIAL TO THE AVERING WORD.

NEWFORT, Aug. 2.—It is a beautiful day for the race of the forty-footers, and all one tile flat the yachts have gone outside to see the fleet little craft take wing.

Many ladies are among the speciators who have put out on boase not in the race.

The roce of the twelve miles to windward and back and the prospects are good for a guide sail.

Many ladies are among the speciators who have put out on boase not in the race.

The roce of the counter is the footy-footers, and all one tile flowed the see the fleet little craft take wing.

Many ladies are among the speciators who have put out on boase not in the race.

The roce of the counter is the footy-footers, and all one tile flowed to see the fleet little craft take wing.

Many ladies are among the speciators who have put out on boase not in the race.

The roce of the twelve miles to windward and back and the prospects are good for a quick sail.

The roce of the counter is the footy-footer, and all one than the proposed see the fleet little craft take wing.

Mr. Itursion frest under the criticisms of the property there, part of which the administrator is alleged to have withheld from her.

Expresident's Wife.

An Omala despatch aunounces that Alice R. Folsom create for the rainer of the following last the race of the counter of the state of the surface of the footy-footy there, part of which the administrator is alleged to have withheld from her.

Expresident's Wife.

An Omala despatch aunounces that Alice R. Folsom has brought suit in the District Court of that city against Mrs. France Folsom Cleveland and other heirs of the property there, part of which the administrator is alleged to have withheld from her.

Expresident's Wife.

An Omala despatch aunounces that Alice R. Folsom has brought suit in the District Court of that city against Mrs. France Folsom Cleveland and other heirs of the footy-foot and the property there, part of which the administrat

Give Him a House and Lot.

Shop.

Luxx, Mass., Aug 2.—At 0.20 o'clock, there was an explosion in the Munros street paint shop of G. F. Bartel & Co., followed

PRICE ONE CENT.

The Sugar Trust's Scheme to

Old Colony Trust Company te

IN THE SUNDAY WORLD The Bank Statement Shows a Gos confined to in certificates, as 8114 a 8114. rising to SING BL As an instance of a cates suggested to Treasurer Searles the advisability of arranging with a Bostop trust company to act as agent for the tru fer of certificates under the proposed pis have finally agreed upon a general advance in all rates except grain, which are slightly reduced in accordance with orders from the Inter-State Commerce Commission The Bank statement was favorable, showing an increase in reserve of $2,906, 423,

July 20. A=9. 2. Charge. 2400, 030, 300 8401, 560, 800 Inc. $1,530,600 875.549,900 880,387,900 Inc. 94.817,700 432,570,900 Dec. 6155,200 832,726,100

rels of oil. No. Pac. 2016

Nor. 2016

N

Mining Stocks.

DRENCHED WITH BOILING SYRUP.

The confectionery shop of Howley. scene of a fight this morning which rescane of a fight this morning which resulted very seriously.

BOUTH HIMDHAM, Mass., Aug. 2.—The friends of M. J. Kelly, the $10,000 baseball beauty, have norchased the estate of William J. Nefl so Main street, with the intention of presenting it to him.

The papers were passed on this morning and two hours afterwards there were expenters, painters, paper-hangers and electric light workmen at work making repairs.

The estate contains five or six acres of land under cultivation, and on it there are a two-and-a-half story house, stable, outbuildings, &c., in good state of repair.

LYNN'S $36, 700 BLAZE.

Fire Follows an Exploaton in a Paint Shop.

A WAIL FROM ANN O'DELIA.

Property Clerk Harront received a letter to-day from Nime. Ann O'Della Disa Debar, dated in a prison at Bonne, Italy, in which

Under the Law.

Act as Their Agent.

of $2,906,425,

true, moved up 24 to 84%, but otherrise the variations pero of reorganization. The suggestion : as gladly availed of, and the Old Colony Trust Company, of Boston, has been designated to represent the Central Trust Company of this city to that extent A Chicago special says the Grunger have finally agreed upon a general which brings the surplus up to $8,959,556 above legal requirements. The following

9468.591.500 8415.915.800 lbs. 87.023.800 CIRCULATION. 33.608.200 53.603.400 lbs. 622.101 Total sales of listed stocks, 20,700 shares

The following were the closing quot for mining stocks at the Con-

MRS. CLEVELAND SUED.

A Share in the Folsom Estate Claimed of the Ex-President's Wife.

An Omaia despatch amounces that Alice B. Folsom has brought suit in the District B. Folsom has brought suit in the District B. Folsom by B Terrible Injuries of a Lad Who Fought with His Shopmare.

Average for past tempt-four bears, 55 5 5 de description. And erro a titual cicage of the murdian derror from the axtreme penalty is induced at Warden Durston refuses to say.

The respilate the Bearson Research Little Liver Pila. One pull a foca.

The respilate the Bearson Research Little Liver Pila. One pull a foca.

The respilate the Bearson Research Little Liver Pila. One pull a foca.

The respilate the Bearson Research Little Liver Pila. One pull a foca.

The respilate the Bearson Research Little Liver Pila. One pull a foca.

The respilate the Bearson Research Little Liver Pila. One pull a foca.

The respilate the Bearson Research Little Liver Pila. One pull a foca.

The respilate the following firms were burst and the following firms were burst.

Bartol & Co. Edward A. Dopis, Jaweling burst and the following firms and the following firms and the following firms and the foll the cover of the law it is stated that a